OUR CIRCULATION.

We wish to keep the following paragraph standing for the benefit of all whom it may concern:
ADVERTISING.—We would commend the following facts to the attention of the advertising community. The "Wilmington Journal" circulates upwards of five hundred copies weekly. Its circulation in the town of Wilmington is as large as that of any other paper published in the place. We would further state that its circulation in the counties which trade to this place is three times as large as that of any other paper published in North Carolina, and that it is daily increasing. We say, therefore, without the fear of contradiction, that it is a best place for advertising which the people of Wilmington can select. For other observations on the "Journal" we refer to the majority of the readers of the "Journal" are Democrats, still occasionally do dissenting views, as well as the readers of the whole paper. We have written the above merely for the information of those who are not deeply interested in business. All professions and all political creeds—WILMINGTON, N. C.
